Grade 2 News

AT TOP RIGHT - Second graders learned about plants and animals in a science unit as the school year wound down. As an enrichment activity, Mrs. Lund brought her horse, Maggie, to school. Students enjoyed learning about Maggie’s behaviors, her features, how to be safe with a horse, and how to care for a horse. Students were very excited to see Maggie. In fact, many of the youngsters were able to see a horse up close for the very first time! Thank you, Mrs. Lund, for providing this great learning opportunity for second graders!

AT MIDDLE RIGHT - The second grade would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kirk for bringing in the replica of the USS Boston on May 24, 2017. Mr. Kirk is a Vietnam War Veteran, who proudly served upon this ship and graciously came to school to share his experience as a U.S. Navy Veteran. He has spent the last 30 years working on this 10 1/2 foot water-ready vessel. The model ship was created from scratch by Mr. Kirk. Second graders were amazed by the moving components and sound effects. All of these features were controlled through a custom remote control. Thank you, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk, for coming to share with us about the USS Boston Navy vessel!

AT BOTTOM RIGHT - On Monday, May 22, the entire second grade enjoyed a special visit from Trooper Nolte and his K-9 partner, Weltz. Trooper Nolte shared with students about his job, Weltz’s job, their training as officers, and the special bond between a Trooper and his K-9 partner. Students also enjoyed a brief time of asking questions about Weltz and Trooper Nolte’s retired K-9, Nugent. The youngsters enjoyed learning about a police officer’s job and about K-9 Weltz.

Art Department Wrap Up

Another school year has ended with cheers, tears and more than a few cases of sleep deprivation. The art shows have all come down with hopes that much of the work is now gracing many a home in the area. Here is a recap of the past couple of months.

Five students were awarded the top three awards in the Western New York Region of the e-School login screen with STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Math) as the theme. Senior Emily LeVasseur was awarded First prize with a $500 check; Juniors Zhen Ting Li and Dawson Sloat were tied and both awarded Third place and $250, and Honorable Mentions went to Senior Treyton Alsworth and Junior Ruth Foth with each receiving $50.

Wellsville Creative Arts Center hosted a show of area high school students’ work with many submissions from Wellsville. Freshman Sophie Majewski was awarded top honors with her work and Sophomore Dominic Murray was selected by an area business for an award. Subsequently, both of these students were also awarded First and Second place in the Helen P. Kelley Memorial Art Show sponsored by the Western New York Federation of Women’s Clubs.

The Dream Rocket Project sponsored a show at the Women’s Rights National Park in Seneca Falls, NY with the theme, “What Inequalities Exist Today”, which opens July 1st and runs through August 31st. The Graphic work of Emily LeVasseur, Cade

Brown, Dominic Murray, Zhen Ting Li, Tyler Kemp, Alexandra Watson, and Pacey Scott are represented in this show.

The District Art Show was another success exhibiting the talent and creative output of many students in the entire District. Lastly, the Senior Art Shows adorned the Secondary School with a well-attended opening and dinner hosted by the Art Club and their Advisor Kristy McNulty.

Congratulations to all and the best to the Graduating Class of 2017!

School will open on Tuesday, September 5.
